World Day of the Sick

The World Day of the Sick has been celebrated since 1992 on the feast of our Lady of Lourdes, February 11th. This celebration is a reminder to pray for all those who are sick and to recognize and honour those who serve as caregivers.

"The encounter of Jesus with the ten lepers, narrated by the Gospel of Saint Luke (cf. Lk 17:11-19), and in particular the words that the Lord addresses to one of them, "Stand up and go; your faith has saved you." helps us to become aware of the importance of faith for those, who burdened by suffering and illness, draw near to the Lord. In their encounter with him, they can truly experience that he who believes is never alone! God, indeed, in his Son, does not abandon us to our anguish and sufferings, but is close to us, helps us bear them, and wishes to heal us in the depths of our hearts (cf. Mk 2:1-12)." Benedictus PP.XVI

On February 11th & 12th, we will celebrate the great efforts of doctors, nurses, healthcare professionals, pastoral caregivers, and friends and family who help to restore health and care for those afflicted with illness and decease. We will pray for the sick and suffering on their journey of healing. All are welcome to attend our regular scheduled masses for this special time of prayer and blessing.

Whatever villages or towns or countryside he entered, they laid the sick in the marketplaces and begged him that they might touch only the tassel on his cloak; and as many as touched it were healed.

Fifth Week of Ordinary Time

The Fifth Sunday of Ordinary Time has readings that deal with suffering and weakness. In Mark's Gospel, we see Jesus go to Simon Peter's house to heal Peter's mother-in-law. Crowds of people gather for healing outside the house. In the morning, Jesus slips away to pray, only to be searched out by Peter. Jesus says, "Let us go on to the nearby villages that I may preach there also. For this purpose have I come."

Monday is the Memorial of Saint Paul Miki and Companions. Friday is the Memorial of Saint Scholastica.

The first reading this week, from the First Book of Kings, continues the story of David's family as his son the wise Solomon is now King of Israel. He is honored and praised for his wisdom, but falls away from the Lord and worships false gods, and for that the Lord tells him he will lose the Kingdom of Israel.

During the week, the fast-paced Gospel of Mark continues with stories of Jesus healing, teaching and challenging the authorities. As Jesus and his disciples step on shore, people scurry from all over to bring those in need of healing. The Pharisees, watching for Jesus to break rules, criticize his followers for not washing their hands. Jesus responds, "You disregard God's commandment but cling to human tradition." Jesus teaches his followers, "Nothing that enters one from outside can defile that person; but the things that come out from within are what defile." Jesus goes to Tyre and tries to slip into a house unnoticed, but a foreign woman finds him and Jesus, impressed by her faith, heals her daughter. He heals a man of his deafness and speech impediment and like so many others he healed, he orders him not to tell anyone. "But the more he ordered them not to, the more they proclaimed it." Moved with pity, Jesus feeds the huge crowds who had followed him for three days. "They ate and were satisfied. They picked up the fragments left over – seven baskets. There were about four thousand people."

The Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time offers a dramatic look at leprosy. The first reading from Leviticus has clear instructions: A leper has to live away from the community, cover his head and call out, "Unclean, unclean!" as people go near him. It emphasizes even more what it means that Jesus speaks with and touches someone who was such a pariah as he heals the leper in Mark's Gospel.

INTERIOR RENOVATIONS...

Practical tips for living the Golden Rule in your daily life:

Notice how it makes you feel.

*Notice how your actions affect others,
especially when you start to treat them
with kindness, compassion, respect, trust, love.*

But also notice the change in yourself.

Do you feel better about yourself?

Happier? More secure? More willing to trust others, now that you trust yourself?

*These changes come slowly and in small increments,
but if you pay attention, you'll see them.*
